My visit to Thinktank

thinktank
Birmingham science museum

I am going to visit Thinktank.

Thinktank is a science museum

These are photos of the outside of the building where Thinktank is.

There are people that will help me when I am in the museum. These people are called Visitor Experience Assistants.

They wear Pink Lanyards.

If I have a question when I am at Thinktank I can talk to a Visitor Experience Assistant. It is fine to talk to them.

The Visitor Experience Assistants might take me to a trolley.

If I want, I can leave my bag and coat here, they will be safe.

Thinktank has 4 floors. I might not visit them all but that is fine. The different parts of Thinktank are called galleries.

Usually, I will move between floors using stairs or the lifts. My adult or a Visitor Experience Assistant will tell me which is OK to use.

There are toilets on every floor of Thinktank.

If I need the toilet, I can ask my adult, or a Visitor Experience Assistant and they will show me to one.

Thinktank is a busy place. There might be lots of other children at Thinktank when I visit. It might be very noisy when I visit.

If I don't like the noise, I can tell my adult or a Visitor Experience Assistant. They will take me somewhere quiet.

I don't have to if I don't want to.

This is a photo of the quiet room. I might come in here if it is too noisy in the galleries, but I don't have to.

I must not leave the area where the people I came with are. This is so my group knows where I am, and I am safe.

If I don't know where my group is I can ask a Visitor Experience Assistant and they will help me.

This is a photo of the entrance to the Science Garden.

I might visit the Science Garden while I am at Thinktank. It is outside the museum.

I can learn about machines in the Science Garden.

In the Science Garden there are lots of things to play on. I must be careful not to hurt myself. If I don't know how to use something I can ask my adult or a Visitor Experience Assistant.
