

thinktank
Birmingham science museum

Trainee Enabler Job Description

Duration: Wednesday 27th July to end of August 2016
Hours: 9.15 am – 5.10 pm for 16 days
Pay: £4.20 per hour, gross

Job role

You will receive on-the-job training to develop transferable skills, whilst also being an important part of the Museum Enabler team at Thinktank Birmingham Science Museum. The role is public facing and you will form part of the core team that interacts with visitors on a daily basis. You will be trained to explain the science and history of objects and exhibits as well as assisting with activities. You will ensure that all visitors enjoy their visit to the museum.

Skills you will need include:

- Team player
- Confidence
- Enthusiasm
- Ability to follow instructions
- Courtesy
- Common sense
- Engagement with staff
- Communication
- Eloquence
- Outgoing
- Listening skills
- Patience
- Engagement with peers
- Punctuality

How to apply:

If you are 16 or 17 and live or study in Birmingham and would like to apply, then download an application form and submit the completed application form to: anne-marie.hayes@birminghammuseums.org.uk

The closing date for completed applications is Friday 17th June 2016 at midday.

Interviews are planned to take place on Wed 6th and Sat 9th July.

This is a paid traineeship aimed at helping local young people start a career within the cultural sector at your local museum.