KEY SUMMARY

We are lucky to have an amazing team of volunteers supporting us at all nine of our sites. Our volunteers get involved with a whole range of projects and activities and we couldn't do what we do without them.

If you apply to volunteer with us, we will process your personal information provided in the course of your application in order to carry out our volunteer recruitment process and to support you in your volunteer role.

This notice explains what data we process, why, how it is legal and your rights.

ABOUT US AND THIS NOTICE

This Privacy Notice is provided by Birmingham Museums Trust (" or "we" or "us") who is a 'controller' for the purposes of the General Data Protection Regulation (EU) 2016/679.

You should read this Privacy Notice if you are, or have applied to become, a volunteer with us.

We take your privacy very seriously. We ask that you read this Privacy Notice carefully as it contains important information about our processing and your rights.

WHAT PERSONAL DATA DO WE COLLECT?

The sections below set out the categories of personal data we may ask for at each stage of your application to become a volunteer with us and to support you in your volunteer role. Some data may not be required depending on the type of volunteer role you are applying for. The reasons why we need each category of data are set out in the section 'Why do we need your personal data'.

If you choose not to provide us with any of these categories of information, your application may be rejected or it could affect our ability to process your application.

Pre-application

If you contact us with any questions prior to submitting an application for a volunteer role with us, we will not keep a record of any of your details. You will be given the opportunity to join our Volunteering Interest List. By joining this list you confirm that you are happy to receive email updates as and when volunteering opportunities become available. You also confirm that you are aged 16 or over.

If you submit an application

If you submit an application for a volunteer role with us, we will ask you for:

- Your contact details, including your name, address, e-mail address and telephone number.
- Details of your relevant education and employment history.
- Details of any skills or interests that you would like to highlight to us.
- Details of referees.
- Details of your current situation (student, employed, retired, etc)
- Permission from a parent or guardian (if you are under 18) allowing you to undertake unpaid volunteering with us.
- Information for the purposes of Equal Opportunities Monitoring, this section of our recruitment process is optional.

Assessment stage

If you are successful in our initial shortlisting stage, we may invite you for an interview or selection day. Information generated by you and by us during this process will not be retained.

If we make and you accept an offer for a volunteer role

We will require further information from you in order to meet our obligations, such as your:

- Emergency contact details
- Confidential statement of health

Personal information provided by third parties

Most of the personal data we process about you when you apply for a volunteer role is information that you give us directly. However, some information we gather from the third parties below.

- Your referees: If you apply for a volunteer role with us, we will contact your referees directly, using the details you provide in your application, to request a reference.

WHY DO WE PROCESS YOUR PERSONAL DATA?

We use your personal data for the purposes listed in the table. We are allowed to do so on certain legal grounds which are also set out in the table (and which are explained further in the section 'Legal grounds for processing personal data').

LEGAL GROUNDS FOR PROCESSING PERSONAL DATA

We have set out below a description about each of the legal grounds on which we process your personal data.

Reasons for processing your personal data:

Necessary for our legitimate interests: We process some personal data if doing so is in our legitimate interests as an employer. In order to do so, we have considered the impact on your interests and rights, and have put in place appropriate safeguards to ensure that the intrusion on your privacy is reduced as much as possible. You have the right to object to the processing of your personal data on this ground. See section headed 'Your Rights' to found out how.

Necessary for the compliance of a legal obligation: We have to process some of your personal data in order to comply with certain of our legal obligations.

Additional conditions for processing special categories of data, or criminal offences data:

Necessary for compliance with our obligations under employment law: We have to process some of special categories of data in order to comply with certain of our legal obligations.

Necessary in the substantial public interest: The law allows us to process certain special categories of data where there is a substantial public interest. You have the right to object to the processing of your personal data on this ground. See section headed 'Your Rights' to found out how.

Necessary for the purposes of occupational medicine, including the assessment of your working capacity as a volunteer: We will process information about your health in order to assess your medical capacity to perform the role you have applied for.

Necessary to establish, exercise or defend legal claims: we may need to process special categories of data in order to exercise our legal rights and bring or defend claims.

WHO WILL HAVE ACCESS TO YOUR DATA

If you would like to know the names of our service providers who provide typical services required by all companies to support our business (e.g. website hosting, IT support, hard copy mailing providers), please contact us using the details at the start of this Privacy Notice.

We will share your personal data with the police, other law enforcements or regulators where we are required by law to do so.

Transfers of your personal data outside the EEA

We do not transfer your personal data outside the European Economic Area (EEA).

How we keep your personal data secure?

We strive to implement appropriate technical and organisational measures in order to protect your personal data against accidental or unlawful destruction, accidental loss or alteration, unauthorised disclosure or access and any other unlawful forms of processing. We aim to ensure that the level of security and the measures adopted to protect your personal data are appropriate for the risks presented by the nature and use of your personal data. We follow recognised industry practices for protecting our IT environment and physical facilities and we limit access to your personal data to those employees, agents, contractors and other third parties who have a business need to know. They will only process your personal data on our instructions and they are subject to a duty of confidentiality.

We have put in place procedures to deal with any suspected personal data breach and will notify you and any applicable regulator of a breach where we are legally required to do so.

HOW LONG WILL WE USE YOUR PERSONAL DATA FOR?

If your application for a volunteer role with us is unsuccessful or you do not accept our offer of the volunteer role, then we will delete all of the personal data gathered during the recruitment exercise three months after the relevant recruitment exercise has ended. If your application is successful we will retain your personal data for the period you volunteer with us and we will retain your name for a further three years after your volunteer role is completed. This is so that we can:

- (a) Defend any claims arising from the recruitment process.
- (b) Offer feedback to successful or unsuccessful candidates.
- (c) Provide a reference should this be required at a later date.

YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS

As a data subject, you have the following rights under the Data Protection Laws:

- the right to object to processing of your personal data;
- the right of access to personal data relating to you (known as data subject access request);
- the right to correct any mistakes in your personal data;
- the right to prevent your personal data being processed;
- the right to erasure;
- the right to have your personal data ported to another controller (note not relevant).

These rights are explained in more detail below. If you want to exercise any of your rights, please contact us (please see "How to contact us").

We will respond to any rights that you exercise within a month of receiving your request, unless the request is particularly complex, in which case we will respond within three months.

Please be aware that there are exceptions and exemptions that apply to some of the rights which we will apply in accordance with the Data Protection Laws.

➤ Right to object to processing of your personal data

You may object to us processing your personal data where we rely on a legitimate interest as our legal grounds for processing.

If you object to us processing your personal data we must demonstrate compelling grounds for continuing to do so. We believe we have demonstrated compelling grounds in the section headed "Why do we need your personal data". The key point to note is that without processing your data, we will not know as much about you which could affect our assessment of your suitability for a role with us.

➤ Right to access personal data relating to you

You may ask to see what personal data we hold about you and be provided with:

- a copy of the personal data;
- details of the purpose for which the personal data is being or is to be processed;
- details of the recipients or classes of recipients to whom the personal data is or may be disclosed, including if they are overseas and what protections are used for those overseas transfers;

- the period for which the personal data is held (or the criteria we use to determine how long it is held);
- any information available about the source of that data; and
- whether we carry out an automated decision-making, or profiling, and where we do information about the logic involved and the envisaged outcome or consequences of that decision or profiling.

To help us find the information easily, please provide us as much information as possible about the type of information you would like to see.

➤ Right to correct any mistakes in your information

You can require us to correct any mistakes in your information which we hold. If you would like to do this, please let us know what information is incorrect and what it should be replaced with.

➤ Right to restrict processing of personal data

You may request that we stop processing your personal data temporarily if:

- you do not think that your data is accurate. We will start processing again once we have checked whether or not it is accurate;
- the processing is unlawful but you do not want us to erase your data;
- we no longer need the personal data for our processing, but you need the data to establish, exercise or defend legal claims; or
- you have objected to processing because you believe that your interests should override our legitimate interests.

➤ Right to erasure

You can ask us to erase your personal data where:

- you do not believe that we need your data in order to process it for the purposes set out in this Privacy Notice;
- if you had given us consent to process your data, you withdraw that consent and we cannot otherwise legally process your data;
- you object to our processing and we do not have any legitimate interests that mean we can continue to process your data; or
- your data has been processed unlawfully or have not been erased when it should have been.

➤ Right to data portability (note not relevant)

In some scenarios, you may ask for an electronic copy of your personal data which we hold electronically or you can ask us to provide this directly to another party. This right does not apply as we do not process your personal data based on your consent or on a contract with us.

What will happen if your rights are breached?

You may be entitled to compensation for damage caused by contravention of the Data Protection Laws.

Complaints to the regulator

It is important that you ensure you have read this Privacy Notice - and if you do not think that we have processed your data in accordance with this notice - you should let us know as soon as possible. You may also complain to the ICO. Information about how to do this is available on his website at www.ico.org.uk.
